RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

- Anthropology + ecology, economy, evolution, environment
- Human ecology, economic anthropology, human behavioral ecology
 - Cognitive level: Risk, time, value, covariation, causality, culture
 - Household level: Livelihoods, foraging, agriculture, markets, non-market exchange, poverty, inequality
- Cognitive anthropology of risk and misfortune: ecological and cosmological cultural causal models
- Quantitative & qualitative ethnography, behavioral observation, experimental methods
- Madagascar, Africa

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- Aug 2005 – present University of Georgia, Department of Anthropology
Associate Professor with tenure (as of July 2011).
Core faculty, African Studies Institute.
Affiliated faculty, Integrative Conservation.
- Jul 2002 – Jul 2005 Ohio State University, Department of Anthropology
Assistant professor (tenure track).

OTHER POSITIONS

- Nov 2017 – Nov 2019 President, Society for Economic Anthropology (a section of the American Anthropological Association).
- 2011-2012 Fellow, Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin, Institute for Advanced Studies.

EDUCATION

- 1994 – 2001 University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Ph.D., Department of Anthropology
Dissertation title: The Behavioral Ecology and Economics of Risk, Variation, and Diversification among Mikea Forager-Farmers of Madagascar
- 1991 – 1994 Ohio University, Athens, Ohio
A.B. with high honors. Anthropology major, biological sciences minor.

HONORS

- 2010 Outstanding Mentor Award, University of Georgia Graduate School.
- 2008 Honored Professor, University of Georgia Student Government Association
- 2001 Manning Award, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Department of Anthropology, for outstanding doctoral dissertation.
- 2000 Honigmann Award, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Department of Anthropology, for outstanding ethnographic field research.
- 1994 Outstanding Graduating Senior, Ohio University Department of Sociology and Anthropology.

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- 2020 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Andrew Bonanno): “Examining Land Tenure change and Wellbeing in Sierra Leone.” (BCS-1948910; $7182).
- 2017 National Science Foundation, Cultural Anthropology. “Testing Multiple Approaches for Understanding Adaptive Functions of Cultural Institutions: Toward a More Robust and Reliable Social Science.” (BCS 1733917; $200,255 + $40,049 supplement + $6000 REG supplement).
- 2017 Wenner-Gren Foundation (with Dr. Kristina Douglass, Pennsylvania State University): “Testing models of cultural change through archaeological survey and oral history among Mikea forager-agropastoralists of SW Madagascar.” ($19,984)
- 2014 Provost's 2014 Summer Research Grant, University of Georgia. $5000 for a pilot study of natural and supernatural causal models in southwestern Madagascar.
- 2011-2012 Fellow, Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin (Institute for Advanced Studies): One year spent in residence at WiKo, Berlin, to devote time to research ($38,000 teaching buy-out).
- 2012 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Joseph Lanning): “Calculated, Constrained, and Co-Opted Decisions: Explaining Agricultural Behavior of Malawian Farmers in Times of Uncertainty” (BCS-1227812; $17,934).
- 2011 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Laura Tilghman): “Who Needs the Village? Rural-Urban Linkages and Livelihood Strategies in Tamatave, Madagascar” (BCS-1124316; $12,600).
- 2010 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Victoria Ramenzoni): “Subjective estimations, probabilities, and subsistence decision-making in Endeh, Flores Island, Indonesia. Is more information better?” (BCS-1022914, $20,000 + $5000 supplement).
- 2009 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Elaina Lill). “‘Unwise Fishers’: Conservation and Customary Law in Coastal Southwest Madagascar” (BCS- 0923860; $15,000), with J. Peter Brosius.
- 2007-2009 National Science Foundation, Cultural Anthropology: Two years of funding for 4 season project entitled, “Subsistence decision-making in southwestern Madagascar: Coping with poverty or social learning?” (BCS-0650412, $172,179 + $15,000 supplement).
- 2008 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate Student co-PI Amber Huff): “Social change, livelihoods, and nutritional outcomes among Mikea of southwest Madagascar” (BCS-0817261; $13,500 + $5800 supplement).
- 2008 National Science Foundation Research Experience for Graduates Supplement (REG), (Graduate student co-PI Laura Tilghman): $5000 supplement to BCS-0650412 for predissertation fieldwork in the Zahamena Region of north-central Madagascar.
- 2006 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Tiffany Rinne): “Cultural meanings and acceptance of genetically modified food and crop technology in the United States and New Zealand” (BCS-0612780; $12,000).
- 2006 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate student co-PI Tammy Watkins): “Children's subsistence contributions to pastoral households in the drylands of East Africa” (BCS-0612759; $9,375).
- 2006 Faculty Research Grant, Office of the Vice President for Research, University of Georgia: Funding for two-month project entitled, “Effects of food insecurity, poverty, and marginalization on decision-making in rural southwestern Madagascar: A test of methods” ($6400).

- 2005 National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant (Graduate Student co-PI Alyson Young): "Patterns of infant vulnerability and caregiver-infant interaction in a northern Tanzanian community" (BCS-0451049; $3050).
- 2003 Faculty Travel Grant, Office of International Affairs, Ohio State University: Funding for two-month feasibility study for experimental economic research among Mikea of Madagascar ($2000).
- 1999 – 2000 Dissertation Fellowship, Graduate School, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill: Funding to write dissertation, 1999 – 2000 academic year ($16,000).
- 1999 National Science Foundation Dissertation Improvement Grant (with faculty co-PI Bruce Winterhalder): Funded five-month follow-up project to dissertation fieldwork, March – July 1999 (BCS-9808984, $5000).
- 1997 Fulbright, Institute of International Education: Funded dissertation ethnographic research project in Madagascar entitled "Risk and Diversification among Mikea Hunter-gatherers of Southwestern Madagascar" ($23,000).
- 1997 L.S.B. Leakey Foundation General Grant: Offered funding for dissertation ethnographic research project in Madagascar entitled "Risk and Diversification among Mikea Hunter-gatherers of Southwestern Madagascar." Declined due to acceptance of other awards ($15,000).
- 1997 Sigma Xi Grant-in-Aid of Research: Granted for dissertation research project in Madagascar, applied to the purchase of automatic weather monitoring stations ($1200).
- 1993 Travel Grant, University Center for International Studies, UNC Chapel Hill: Funded predissertation ethnographic research project in the Mikea Forest of Madagascar ($4300).

FIELDWORK

- 2018 - 2022 "Testing Multiple Approaches for Understanding Adaptive Functions of Cultural Institutions." Fieldwork among Mikea, Masikoro, and Vezo of Southwestern Madagascar funded by NSF BCS 1733917, examining links between social norms and cultural models of causality and economic outcomes.
- Jun 2018 "Testing models of cultural change through archaeological survey and oral history among Mikea forager-agropastoralists of SW Madagascar." Archaeological and oral history of the Namonte Basin. Co-P.I. Kristina Douglass (Pennsylvania State U.). Funded by the Wenner-Gren Foundation.
- Jun 2017 "The Effect of Social Networks on Inequality: A Longitudinal Cross-Cultural Investigation." Wealth and social network data collection among Mikea of Madagascar associated with NSF BCS-1743019, P.I.s J. Koster (U. Cincinnati), E. Power (London School of Economics), M. Jackson (Santa Fe Institute), M. Borgerhoff Mulder (Max Planck Institute), and S. Bowles (Santa Fe Institute).
- Jun-Jul 2014 "Social change and magical causation in the northern Fiheregna region of Madagascar." One month field investigation with two goals: explore recent social changes associated with the new Mikea Forest National Park, and pilot work exploring cosmological causal models. With funding from UGA Provost's 2014 Summer Research Grant.
- Mar 2014 Pilot fieldwork, Haiti. Two week introductory fieldwork focused on agricultural strategies near Mirabalais (Central Plateau) and Miragoane (Southwest).
- Jun 2010 Ethnographic field methods training, Ntcheu District, Malawi.
- Graduate student participation: Joseph Lanning, Jessica Ham, Stefan Brannan (U. of Georgia); Jose Perillan, Matthew Brockway, Howard Lin (U. of Rochester); Abigail Conrad (American U.).

- 2007-2008 "Subsistence decision-making in southwestern Madagascar: Coping with poverty or social learning?" Year-long ethnographic and experimental-economic study of the effects of wealth, hunger, and socially-shared information on time and risk preference among Mikea, Masikoro, and Vezo of Madagascar, in the context of the new Mikea Forest National Park.
- Graduate student participation: Amber Huff, Elaina Lill, Laura Tilghman (U. of Georgia); Patricia Hajasoa, Charlotte Nañisaha, Louinaise Rasoanomenjanahary, Razafindravelo Miza, Roger Tsikengo, René Lahitoka, Rolland Lahiniriko, Christian Zahatsy (Université de Toliara, Madagascar).
- May-Jun 2006 "Effects of food insecurity, poverty, and marginalization on decision-making in rural southwestern Madagascar: A test of methods." Field test of measures of wealth (livestock, material, social capital), food insecurity, hunger, and risk/time preferences among Masikoro farmers, Vezo fishermen, and Mikea hunter-gatherers.
- Aug-Sep 2004 "Mikea Forest Project 2004: Perception of foraging skill, economic value, autonomy, and reproduction."
- Undergraduate student participation: Anne-Marie Bertino, Ellen Ranz (Ohio State U.)
- Sep-Nov 2003 "Mikea household decision-making and foraging economics after slash-and-burn." Two-month feasibility study for future experimental economic research about household subsistence decision-making in the Mikea Forest following government-enforced ban on slash-and-burn maize.
- Mar-Jul 1999 Dissertation follow-up project, southwestern Madagascar: Five-month project to complete dissertation objectives in the Mikea Forest.
- Sep 1997 – Nov 1998 "Risk and Diversification among Mikea Hunter-gatherers of Southwestern Madagascar." Dissertation field project to investigate Mikea household economic strategies, including perception of interannual variation, age/sex division of labor, food sharing, market strategies, and diversification strategies.
- Jun-Aug 1996 "A Preliminary Investigation of Foraging Strategies and Demography of Commercial Hunter-Gatherers of Madagascar." Predissertation ethnographic fieldwork, including time allocation and market surveys.
- Jun-Aug 1993, 1994 Gray and Pape, Inc., Cultural Resource Consultants, Cincinnati, Ohio: Archaeological technician; survey work in Ohio, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania.
- Jun-Aug 1992 Field School in Ohio Archaeology, Ohio University: Nine-week excavation and lab work associated with the Allen Site (33-AT-653), a Middle Woodland settlement.
- Dec 1991 Sociology Field School in Belize, Central America; Ohio University: Three-week program in rural and urban Belize involving research on sociological topics.
